

Tractor Show

Antique and classic tractors on display by local tractor clubs.

Sorghum Molasses

Watch how molasses was made back in the day. The cane is grown right here in Cane Hill. Cane juice is squeezed and then skimmed on a copper cooker sitting on top a bed of hot coals. Pre-bottled sorghum molasses will be available for sale at the Sorghum stand and in the Country Store located inside Cane Hill Museum.

30th ANNUAL CANE HILL HARVEST FESTIVAL

SEPTEMBER 17 & 18, 2016

CELEBRATING 30 YEARS!

We're so excited to celebrate our 30th year! Come celebrate with us! Watch, listen, and learn all about yesterday's lifestyle. Enjoy live music, food, arts & crafts, quilt show, tractor show and a kid zone. See how sorghum molasses, lye soap and hominy are made. Visit the festival and learn about Cane Hill and watch as history unfolds before your very eyes.

Heritage School Presents...

A living history presentation. Watch and listen to students from the Washington County Historical Society's Heritage School at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday.

Don't Miss Our Quilt Show

Enjoy the display of beautiful patterns and colors in our wonderful quilts. The quilt show begins at 8 a.m. daily. Please donate for a chance to win your very own quilt. Drawing – Sunday at 4:00 p.m.

How-to-Demonstrations

Local volunteers demonstrate making lye soap, sorghum molasses and hominy. Local artists will demonstrate, wood carving, whittling, lace art, fiber spinning and weaving.

Be sure to visit the Cane Hill Museum and Country Store. And please support our vendors and concessions.

Cane Hill College Restoration Continues

The historic Cane Hill College is still closed for restoration. This year's Harvest Festival will continue on the college grounds and at the A.R. Carroll Drug Store, Cane Hill Museum, and the park pavilion area along Hwy. 45.

The Cane Hill Harvest Festival is held on the grounds of the historic Cane Hill College 14219 College WC4762, Cane Hill, AR 72717. Located just off Hwy. 45 in Cane Hill, in the beautiful Ozark Mountains, west of Fayetteville and east of Tahlequah, OK.

See you at the festival!
